Introduce your brand to tomorrow's Think and Do Leaders

NC State's Jenkins MBA program welcomes the opportunity to strengthen our partnership with your organization through sponsorship of MBA activities associated with 700 students (100 full-time, 600 professional evening and /online).

To overcome the challenges facing your business, you need bold, actionable solutions. NC State's approach brings together the best minds to think boldly and put their ideas to work in the real world. That's thinking and doing.
